Week 1 Discussion: Introduction

Hey everyone, I am Alex! I am excited to embark on this Critical Thinking and Digital Literacy journey with you. My passion for deciphering complex information led me to this field, where I am pursuing my degree. My experience includes an enriching internship at a tech startup, focusing on digital content strategy, which deepened my interest in using critical thinking to navigate the digital age. As I look to the future, I aim to apply these skills in digital marketing, further refining my analytical capabilities through this course. I am eager to expand my network, building on connections from digital strategy workshops.

Outside academics, I am an avid reader of mystery novels and a chess enthusiast, which sharpens my problem-solving skills. I also volunteer at local libraries, sharing my love for reading. A fun fact about me: I once organized a community scavenger hunt, combining my love for puzzles with community engagement, attracting a surprisingly large crowd.

My breakfast preference? I avoid sweet breakfasts like pancakes and syrup, favoring savory meals. This inclination stems from cherished memories of my grandmother's flavorful breakfasts, filled with stories as rich as the dishes.

I look forward to learning alongside and getting to know each of you during our time together in this course!
